A detailed image of a pink rhinestone hip flask. The flask has a rectangular shape with rounded corners and is covered in a dense pattern of small, clear rhinestones. It features a silver-colored metal cap with a textured, knurled top. A silver-colored metal band runs along the top edge of the flask. In the center of the front face, there is a rectangular silver-colored plate with the word "LOGO" printed in a large, bold, sans-serif font, indicating where a custom logo can be imprinted.
